Summary: analyst and author; served as independent Federal Minister for Foreign Affairs of Austria

Karin Kneissl studied law and Arabic at the University of Vienna. She completed her dissertation on the “Notion of Borders in the Middle East” via Austrian grants at the Hebrew University Jerusalem, University of Urbino/Italy and later at Georgetown University in Washington (Fulbright Scholar). She is also a graduate of the Paris Ecole Nationale d’Administration, ENA

Dr. Kneissl served as an Austrian diplomat in the office of the Legal Advisor, Cabinet of the minister, Middle East Desk and was posted among others in Paris and Madrid. In late 1998 she quitted the Foreign Service; for the next 20 years, she worked as an independent correspondent on energy affairs, analyst and university lecturer (Vienna, Beirut). She was also member of the Board of the Vienna Insurance Group until 2017. She served her country as Foreign Minister in 2017-19. Thereafter, Dr. Kneissl returned to her independent work. She has written 10 books and numerous papers and articles about geopolitics, energy and international relations while running her small farm south of Vienna.

Experience:

2019-Current

Author: Since leaving the government in June 2019 I have published two books on diplomacy and the transition of mobility. (Diplomatie Macht Geschichte; Die Mobilitätswende und ihre geopolitische Brisanz). In May 2020 I started contributing comments for RT and Sputnik on energy related topics and geopolitics. Due to the series of lockdowns my academic commitments in Germany and lectures for various fund managers had to be partially postponed.

2017-2019

Federal Foreign Minister and Minister of European Affairs and Integration (migration) in the cabinet of Chancellor Sebastian Kurz, as well as in the cabinet of experts of Chancellor Herwig Löger. The main priorities of my work were: Asian focus, beyond China including Bangladesh – thereby adopting a more geopolitical approach of Austrian diplomacy; new chapter with Turkey; dialogue with the Russian Federation, strategic neighbourhood dialogue with Slovenia. Demining programme for Syria. July-Dec.2018 EU chair: promoting geopolitical importance of South-East Europe. On integration of migrants: differentiated course instead of too broad audiences; women as engine of integration; fighting female genital mutilation. On development cooperation: focus on women and development, family planning.

1998-2017

TV/Radio Commentator on Middle Eastern issues, energy policy for ORF (Austrian State TV/Radio), Servus TV, Austria. Invited regularly to participate in panels, interviews on geopolitics, foreign policy and energy issues. Lecturer in international law, Middle East history, energy markets at the University of Vienna, Austria; Diplomatic Academy, Vienna, Austria; European Business School, Rheingau, Germany, Centre International des Sciences de l’Homme, Byblos, Lebanon; Universite St Joseph, Beirut, Lebanon. I have taught in German, French and English.

1990 - 1998

Austrian Diplomat, serving among others at foreign postings in Madrid (1996-98), Paris (1995),

International Law Office (1994), Cabinet of the Federal Foreign Minister (1993), and in the Political Section (1990/91).
